

MARK LOVELL

SENIOR CONSULTANT

Qualifications

BA Technical & Production Arts - Royal Scottish Academy of Music & Drama (now the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland)

Stage Pyrotechnics Advanced Training

IOSH Managing Safety for Theatre and Production Working at Height training

Grade 8 'Cello

CSCS Health and Safety Cardholder

Revit Architecture 2017 Fundamentals training

Professional Associations
Stage Management Association

Member of Equity

Associate Member of ABTT

Main Responsibilities

To assist and consult in all aspects of theatre design and project management.

Experience

Mark joined Charcoalblue having spent more than a decade working in the theatre industry, predominantly as a Production Manager but also as a Stage Manager and Technical Stage Manager, both touring and in numerous venues.

He has worked for many opera, theatre, and dance companies including Scottish Opera; Grange Park Opera; Dorset Opera; Bill Kenwright Ltd; Old Vic New Voices and Theatre 503. Mark spent a season as Technical Stage Manager at Regent's Park Open Air Theatre, and has also worked on a number of large live events including Live8 in 2005, and Edinburgh's Hogmanay celebrations.

Notable productions include triple Olivier Award-winning Hello, Dolly! at Regent's Park, Peter & The Wolf UK tour; Falstaff tour with Grange Park Opera; Die Fledermaus tour with Scottish Opera; A Handful of Stars at Theatre503; and The 39 Steps UK Tour.

Consultancy Work

York Theatre Royal; Tricycle Theatre, Kilburn; Hull New Theatre; Mayflower Theatre, Southampton; Refurbishment of the Bloomsbury Theatre, UCL; Highgate School, London; Dance4, Nottingham; MK Gallery, Milton Keynes; The Regal Cinema, Highams Park; Cheltenham Town Hall; refurbishment of the Strand Campus, Kings College London; Cranleigh School, Surrey; Thameside Theatre, Grays; Tudor Hall School, Banbury; Wellington College, Berkshire; Horris Hill School, Newbury; Hull City Hall; St George's Quarter Project at London South Bank University; and the refurbishment of the Coronet Cinema, Notting Hill.

Contact details

mark.lovell@charcoalblue.com
+44 (0)20 7928 0000

Updated: 18/08/17

